Core A2 grammar (phases 1–3) | DELF exam skills (phase 4) | B1 territory — after job | Passive / ambient

DELF A2 — 4 exam components (all covered in this plan)

Listening (CO) Short audio clips, everyday situations. 25 min.	Reading (CE) Short texts, signs, messages, adverts. 30 min.
Writing (PE) Short message, letter, or form. 45 min.	Speaking (PO) Monologue + examiner interaction. 10 min.

Phase 1 — Core verbs & present tense — the foundation

Weeks 1–3 · ~6 sessions

Etre & avoir

All persons, auxiliary role in compound tenses — everything else builds on these two.

Topic 2 · 1 session

Le present — regular & irregular

Regular -er/-ir/-re patterns, then irregular: aller, venir, faire, pouvoir, vouloir, devoir, tenir, savoir, connaitre.

Topics 1, 3–9 · 3 sessions

Il y a & verbes pronominaux

Reflexive verbs (se lever, se coucher etc.) are very common in DELF A2 writing tasks.

Topics 10–11 · 1 session

Articles — definis, indefinis, partitifs

All three article types with nouns. Common error zone in the writing component.

Topics 38–40 · 1 session

Phase 2 — Past tenses — essential for A2

Weeks 4–6 · ~6 sessions

Passe compose
Avoir vs etre auxiliaries, agreement rules, irregular past participles — most tested past tense at A2.
Topics 12, 14, 15 · 2 sessions

Imparfait
Formation + when to use vs passe compose — the contrast between the two is a classic exam question.
Topic 16 · 2 sessions

Former des questions
Est-ce que, inversion, intonation — all three forms. Needed for the speaking component.
Topic 13 · 1 session

Mots interrogatifs & l'imperatif
Qui, quoi, ou, quand, comment, pourquoi, combien. Imperative for instructions and requests.
Topics 61, 37 · 1 session

Phase 3 Future, pronouns & connectors

Weeks 7–10 · ~8 sessions

Le futur simple
Regular formation + irregular stems (aller→ir-, etre→ser-, avoir→aur- etc.).
Topics 17–18 · 2 sessions

Pronouns — COD, COI, y, en, ordre
Learn in sequence: subjects → COD → COI → y → en → order. Heavily tested in reading and writing.
Topics 43–48 · 3 sessions

Adjectifs possessifs & comparaisons
Mon/ma/mes etc., plus/moins/aussi...que comparisons. Topics 50–52.
1 session

Connecteurs & adverbes de temps
Parce que, donc, mais, puis, ensuite, enfin — essential for writing a coherent short text.
Topics 60, 69–71 · 2 sessions

Phase 4 DELF A2 exam skills — all 4 components

Weeks 11–14 · ongoing

Comprehension orale (listening)
RFI Journal en francais facile, TV5Monde A2 exercises. Focus: gist + specific info from everyday dialogues.
2x per week · 15 min each

Comprehension ecrite (reading)
RFI Savoirs, DELF A2 past papers. Practice scanning short notices, messages, and adverts.
2x per week · 15 min each

Production ecrite (writing)
Short messages, emails, postcards using grammar from phases 1–3. Le Petit Prince as model sentences.
1x per week · 30 min

Production orale (speaking)
Record yourself for 2 min on everyday topics (ma journee, mes projets, mon quartier). Songs help with intonation.
1x per week · 20 min

Phase 5 B1 territory — after you have a job

Not now

Conditionnel present & subjonctif
Topics 22–26 — important but B1 level. Don't study these before passe compose and futur are solid.

Plus-que-parfait, futur anterieur, passe simple
Topics 19, 21, 33 — passe simple appears in L'Etranger but is not tested at A2 at all.

Discours indirect, voix passive, concordance des temps
Topics 34–36 — solidly B1/B2. Dissertation, nominalisation, these-antithese-synthese (66–68) are B2 academic writing.

Pronoms relatifs complexes & pronoms composes
Topics 55–59 (lequel/laquelle, ce dont, ce a quoi) — useful eventually, not A2 requirements.

Ambient Passive learning — no sessions needed

ongoing

French songs
Keep listening. Intonation, rhythm, vocabulary absorption without effort. Don't annotate — just listen.

Le Petit Prince
Read when you feel like it, not as a task. Clean, simple French — better input than any textbook exercise.

RFI Savoirs
When you open it, it counts as your French for the day. Don't combine with a grammar session on the same day.

How to use the 30 min daily

Phases 1–3: one grammar topic per session. Learn the rule (5 min) → workbook exercises (15 min) → write 3–5 original sentences (10 min).
Phase 4: rotate the 4 exam components across the week — don't try to do all four in one sitting.
Minimum viable day: open the workbook, do one exercise. That's enough to keep the streak alive.
